Preface and Frequently Asked Questions

PREFACE AND FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is this?

This is a preview release of the Gospel According to Mark for the new English translation of the Bible, the “Open English Bible”.

Why another translation?

The English language market is currently very well covered by translations for all seasons, everything from the Message, through the CEV, NRSV, AV, and so on through the acronym soup. The OEB aims at the levels of accuracy and natural language achieved by these bibles, but the purpose of the OEB is not to gift the world with a more accurate or ‘better’ translation per se. The existing commercial English translations are, for the large part, of a high standard of accuracy and are the result of much work by knowledgeable and well intended translators.

However, with the honourable exception of the World English Bible (WEB) - and of course the Authorised Version - all of these bibles are subject to copyright, and owned by a particular organisation or publisher. Without wishing to criticise these organisations, their translations naturally have limitations on what end users can do with them.

The OEB will have no restrictions on what its readers and users can do with it (for both good and bad). They may quote it, publish it in part or full, on their blogs, in their churches, remix it, reword

it, correct its egregious translation mistakes or indeed add their own.

Isn't this dangerous?

This generation have a greater ability to confirm the accuracy of their bible translations than any previous generation in history. The underlying Greek and Hebrew, lexicons, learned discussions and flamewars are all just a click away - as are a dozen other translations. Attempting to use copyright law to create authority is an exercise doomed to failure, as are all attempts to enforce truths by the power of the state.

Why not just use the World English Bible?

The World English Bible (WEB) is an impressive achievement, and of great importance. However its language, based as it is on the ASV, remains bound to the Tyndale tradition. As a free counterpart to the NRSV and ESV it is invaluable; however there is still a need for a free bible as a counterpart to the NEB/REB and TNIV/NIV translations. As well, the World English Bible is based upon the Byzantine Majority Text, and the OEB is based on the heavily Alexandrian focused text of Wescott & Hort.

What English language texts is the OEB based on?

The New Testament of the OEB is being formed on the base of the "Twentieth Century New Testament", in particular the revised edition published in 1904. There is currently no decision on how to tackle the Old Testament.

Why the Twentieth Century New Testament?

The TCNT was one of the earliest 20th century attempts at a translation in clear modern language aimed at the ordinary reader and based on a modern textual base (ie Westcott and Hort). Predating the mid-20th century translations such as the New English Bible and even Moffatt's groundbreaking attempt, it is out of copyright worldwide. The TCNT also has a particular resonance with the open source and free content communities of today - it was created by a loose collaboration of volunteers rather than a top-down hierarchy. A worthwhile article on the making of the TCNT can be found on Google Books. Given the requirements of (a) modern language and (b) public domain status the TCNT was the best contender.

Preface and Frequently Asked Questions

How will the Twentieth Century New Testament be edited?

The language of the 20CNT will be edited:

- to reflect modern English usage (including the use of 'they' as a third person single pronoun) at a reading level corresponding roughly to the NEB/REB or NRSV
- to reflect modern scholarship, including on the translation of terms such as 'the Jews' in John and terms referring to sexual practices (see TNIV and Dr Ann Nyland's version)

This editing will be moderate, aiming for a scholarly defensible mainstream translation usable within a religious community rather than a translation focused on a readership completely unfamiliar with the Bible or Christianity (as an example, the OEB will be comfortable with the words 'Christ' and 'Messiah' and will not replace them with 'Anointed One' or similar). A freely licensed translation for the audiences of the Better Life Bible or the CEV is a project for another day.

How do I know the OEB is accurate and unbiased?

Although all translators have opinions on the truth and meaning of the ancient documents which form the Bible, the intent of this revision of the TCNT is not to push any particular theological line but to provide a freely usable translation of an Alexandrian text-type based critical text in modern English. The GitHub account for the OEB contains the original text of the Twentieth Century New Testament in USFM, (which can be checked against the pdf of the published edition on Archive.org); it also contains a list of all of the changes made to that text. As can be seen from the article on the making of the TCNT mentioned above, the TCNT itself was the product of a wide range of translators of differing backgrounds and was not itself intended to push a particular theological point of view.

What is the underlying textual basis for the OEB?

The TCNT was based on the Westcott & Hort critical text and the OEB will not change that - it will remain based on W&H and will not be conformed to the Majority Text or NA27. Since the NA27 is subject to a claim of copyright, W&H remains the best available (ie public domain) text.

What licence is the OEB under?

The OEB will be available under a CC Attribution licence, allowing the maximum reuse. There will be a request that altered versions be distributed under a different name.

What variations will be available?

The translation will be available in US and Commonwealth/UK spelling variations.

What formats will the OEB be available in?

The OEB will be generated in as many formats as possible, including PDF, HTML etc and a version will be available for purchase from Lulu or similar print-on-demand provider.

Who is involved in this?

At the moment, this is a single person project. I am a lawyer with strong technical skills, but without formal training in either translation or in Biblical languages. Accordingly, the OEB is not an exercise in translation so much as editing. I will make all changes transparently, and will endeavour to ensure that no new wording is added that is not attested to in at least one modern, scholarly, mainstream translation.

The Preparation

Mark 1

MARK

THE GOOD NEWS ACCORDING TO MARK

The Preparation

The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ. 1

It is said in the Prophet Isaiah — ‘Behold! I send my Messenger before your face; he shall prepare your way. The voice of one crying aloud in the Wilderness: “Make ready the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.”’ And in fulfillment of this, John the Baptist appeared in the Wilderness, proclaiming a baptism upon repentance, for the forgiveness of sins. The whole of Judea, as well as all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, went out to him; and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 2 3 4 5

John was clad in clothing of camels’ hair, with a belt of leather round his waist, and lived on locusts and wild honey; and he proclaimed — “There is coming after me one more powerful than I, and I am not fit even to stoop down and unfasten his sandals. I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.” 6 7 8

Now about that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. Just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent apart, and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him, and from the heavens came a voice — “You are my Son, the Beloved; in you I delight.” 9 10 11

Immediately afterwards the Spirit drove Jesus out into the Wilderness; and he was there in the Wilderness forty days, 12 13

tempted by Satan, and among the wild beasts, while the angels ministered to him.

The Work in Galilee

14 After John had been committed to prison, Jesus went to Galilee, 15 proclaiming the Good News of God — “The time has come, and the Kingdom of God is at hand; repent, and believe the Good News.”

16 As Jesus was going along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the Sea, for they 17 were fishermen. “Come and follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will set 18 you to fish for people.” They left their nets at once, and followed him.

19 Going on a little further, he saw James, Zebediah’s son, and his 20 brother John, who also were in their boat mending the nets. Jesus at once called them, and they left their father Zebediah in the boat with the crew, and went after him.

21 They walked into Capernaum. On the next Sabbath Jesus went 22 into the Synagogue and began to teach. The people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught them like one who had authority, 23 and not like the Teachers of the Law. Now there was in their Synagogue at the time a man under the power of a foul spirit, who 24 called out: “What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are — the Holy One 25 of God!” But Jesus rebuked the spirit: “Be silent! Come out from 26 him.” The foul spirit threw the man into a fit, and with a loud 27 cry came out from him. They were all so amazed that they kept asking: “What is this? Strange teaching indeed! He gives his commands with authority even to the foul spirits, and they obey him!” 28 And the fame of Jesus spread at once in all directions, through the whole neighborhood of Galilee.

Mark 1

As soon as they had come out from the Synagogue, they went, 29 with James and John, into the house of Simon and Andrew. Now 30 Simon's mother-in-law was lying ill with fever, and they at once told Jesus about her. Jesus went up to her and, grasping her hand, 31 raised her up; the fever left her, and she began to wait upon them.

In the evening, after sunset, the people brought to Jesus all who 32 were ill or possessed by demons; and the whole city was gathered 33 round the door. Jesus cured many who were ill with various dis- 34 eases, and drove out many demons, and would not permit them to speak, because they knew him to be the Christ.

In the morning, long before daylight, Jesus rose and went out, 35 and, going to a lonely spot, there began to pray. But Simon and his 36 companions hastened after him; and, when they found him, they 37 exclaimed: "Every one is looking for you!" But Jesus said to them: 38
 "Let us go somewhere else, into the country towns near, that I may make my proclamation in them also; for that was why I came."
 And he went about making his proclamation in their Synagogues 39
 all through Galilee, and driving out the demons.

One day a leper came to Jesus and, falling on his knees, begged 40 him for help. "If only you are willing," he said, "you are able to make me clean." Moved with compassion, Jesus stretched out his 41 hand and touched him, saying as he did so: "I am willing; become clean." Instantly the leprosy left the man, and he became clean; 42 and then Jesus, after sternly warning him, immediately sent him 43 away, and said to him: "Be careful not to say anything to any one;
 but go and show yourself to the Priest, and make the offerings for your cleansing directed by Moses, as evidence of your cure." The 44 man, however, went away, and began to speak about it publicly, 45 and to spread the story so widely, that Jesus could no longer go openly into a town, but stayed outside in lonely places; and people came to him from every direction.

Mark 2

The Work in Galilee

2 Some days later, when Jesus came back to Capernaum, the 2 news spread that he was in a house there; and so many people collected together, that after a while there was no room for them even round the door; and he began to tell them his Message.
 3 Some people came bringing to him a paralyzed man, who was 4 being carried by four bearers. Being, however, unable to get him near to Jesus, owing to the crowd, they removed the roofing below which Jesus was; and, when they had made an opening, they let down the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying.
 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man: "Child, your sins are forgiven."

6 But some of the Teachers of the Law who were sitting there were 7 debating in their minds: "Why does this man speak like this? He 8 is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins except God?" Jesus, at once intuitively aware that they were debating with themselves in this way, said to them: "Why are you debating in your minds about 9 this? Which is easier? — to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven'? or to say 'Get up, and take up your mat, and walk 10 about'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has power to 11 forgive sins on earth"— here he said to the paralyzed man — "To you I say, Get up, take up your mat, and return to your home." 12 The man got up, and immediately took up his mat, and went out before them all; at which they were amazed, and, as they praised God, they said: "We have never seen anything like this!"

13 Jesus went out again to the Sea; and all the people came to him, 14 and he taught them. As he went along, he saw Levi, the son of Al-phaeus, sitting in the tax-office, and said to him: "Follow me." Levi got up and followed him.

15 Later on he was in his house at table, and a number of tax-gath-16 erers and outcasts took their places at table with Jesus and his disciples; for many of them were following him. When the Teachers of the Law belonging to the party of the Pharisees saw that he

Mark 3

was eating in the company of such people, they said to his disciples: "He is eating in the company of tax-gatherers and outcasts!" Hearing this, Jesus said: "It is not those who are in health that need a doctor, but those who are ill. I did not come to call the religious, but the outcast."

Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were keeping a fast, and people came and asked Jesus: "Why is it that John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, while yours do not?" Jesus answered: "Can the bridegroom's friends fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be parted from them, and they will fast then — when that day comes."

"No one ever sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; if they do, the patch tears away from it — the new from the old — and a worse rent is made. And no one ever puts new wine into old wine-skins; if they do, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins are lost. But new wine is put into fresh skins."

One Sabbath, as Jesus was walking through the cornfields, his disciples began to pick the ears of wheat as they went along. "Look!" the Pharisees said to him, "why are they doing what is not allowed on the Sabbath?" "Have you never read," answered Jesus, "what David did when he was in want and hungry, he and his companions — How he went into the House of God, in the time of Abiathar the High Priest, and ate 'the consecrated bread,' which only the priests are allowed to eat, and gave some to his comrades as well?"

Then Jesus added: "The Sabbath was made for people, and not people for the Sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath."

On another occasion Jesus went in to a Synagogue, where there was a man whose hand was withered. And they watched Jesus

Mark 3

The Work in Galilee

3 closely, to see if he would cure the man on the Sabbath, so that 4 they might have a charge to bring against him. "Stand out in the 5 middle," Jesus said to the man with the withered hand; and to the 6 people he said: "Is it allowable to do good on the Sabbath — or 7 harm? to save a life, or destroy it?" As they remained silent, Je-8 sus looked round at them in anger, grieving at the hardness of 9 their hearts, and said to the man: "Stretch out your hand." The man 10 stretched it out; and his hand had become sound. Immediately on 11 leaving the Synagogue, the Pharisees and the Herodians united in 12 laying a plot against Jesus, to put him to death. Then Jesus went 13 away with his disciples to the Sea, followed by a great number 14 of people from Galilee. A great number, hearing of all that he was 15 doing, came to him from Judea, from Jerusalem, from Edom, from 16 beyond the Jordan, and from the country round Tyre and Sidon.
 17 So Jesus told his disciples to keep a small boat close by, for fear the 18 crowd should crush him. For he had cured many of them, and so 19 people kept crowding upon him, that all who were afflicted might touch him. The foul spirits, too, whenever they caught sight of him, flung themselves down before him, and screamed out: "You are the Son of God"! But he repeatedly warned them not to make him known.

13 Jesus made his way up the hill, and called those whom he 14 wished; and they went to him. He appointed twelve — whom he 15 also named 'Apostles' — that they might be with him, and that 16 he might send them out as his Messengers, to preach, and with 17 power to drive out demons. So he appointed the Twelve — Peter 18 (which was the name that Jesus gave to Simon), James, the son of 19 Zebediah, and his brother John (to whom he gave the name of Boanerges, which means the Thunderers), Andrew, Philip,
 Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, the man that betrayed him.

Mark 4

Jesus went into a house; and again a crowd collected, so that they were not able even to eat their food. When his relations heard of it, they went to take charge of him, for they said that he was out of his mind.

The Teachers of the Law, who had come down from Jerusalem, said: "He has Baal-zebul in him, and he drives the demons out by the help of Baal-zebul, their chief." So Jesus called them to him, and answered them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan?
 When a kingdom is divided against itself, it cannot last; and when a household is divided against itself, it will not be able to last. So, if Satan is in revolt against himself and is divided, he cannot last
 — his end has come!

"No man who has got into a strong man's house can carry off his goods, without first securing him; and not till then will he plunder his house. I tell you that people will be forgiven everything — their sins, and all the slanders that they utter; but whoever slanders
 the Holy Spirit remains unforgiven to the end; he has to answer for an enduring sin." This was said in reply to the charge that he had a foul spirit in him. His mother and his brothers came, and stood outside, and sent to ask him to come to them. There was a crowd sitting round Jesus, and some of them said to him: "Look, your mother and your brothers are outside, asking for you." "Who is my mother? and my brothers?" was his reply. Then he looked around on the people sitting in a circle round him, and said: "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." Jesus again began to teach by the Sea; and, as an immense crowd was gathering round him, he got into a boat, and sat in it on the Sea, while all the people were on the shore at the water's edge.

Then he taught them many truths in parables; and in the course of his teaching he said to them:

Mark 4

The Work in Galilee

- 3 “Listen! The sower went out to sow; and presently, as he was 4 sowing, some of the seed fell along the path; and the birds came,
 5 and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had not much 6 soil, and, having no depth of soil, sprang up at once; but, when
 7 the sun rose, it was scorched, and, having no root, withered
 8 away. Some of the seed fell among brambles; but the brambles 9 shot up and completely choked it, and it yielded no return. Some 10 fell into good soil, and, shooting up and growing, yielded a 11 return, amounting to thirty, sixty, and even a hundred fold.” And 12 Jesus said: “Let any one who has ears to hear with hear.”
- 13 Afterwards, when he was alone, his followers and the Twelve 14 asked him about his parables; and he said: “To you the hidden 15 truth of the Kingdom of God has been imparted; but to those 16 who are outside it all teaching takes the form of parables, that 17 — ‘Though they have eyes, they may see without perceiving; and 18 though they have ears, they may hear without understanding; lest 19 some day they should turn and be forgiven.’
- 20 “You do not know the meaning of this parable!” he went on;
 21 “Then how will you understand all the other parables? The sower
 22 sows the Message. The People meant by the seed that falls along 23 the path are these — where the Message is sown, but, as soon as 24 they have heard it, Satan immediately comes and carries away the 25 Message that has been sown in them. So, too, those meant by the 26 seed sown on the rocky places are the people who, when they have 27 heard the Message, at once accept it joyfully; but, as they have no 28 root, they stand only for a short time; and so, when trouble or per-29 secution arises on account of the Message, they fall away at once.
 30 Those meant by the seed sown among the brambles are different;
 31 they are the people who hear the Message, but the cares of life, and 32 the glamour of wealth, and cravings for many other things come 33 in and completely choke the Message, so that it gives no return.
 34 But the people meant by the seed sown on the good ground are those who hear the Message, and welcome it, and yield a return, thirty, sixty, and even a hundred fold."

Mark 4

Jesus said to them: "Is a lamp brought to be put under the corn-measure or under the couch, instead of being put on the lampstand? Nothing is hidden unless it is some day to come to light, nor was anything ever kept hidden but that it should some day come into the light of day. Let all who have ears to hear with hear.

Take care what you listen to," said Jesus. "The measure you mete will be meted out to you, and more will be added for you. For, to those who have, more will be given; while, from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away."

Jesus also said: "This is what the Kingdom of God is like — like a man who has scattered seed on the ground, and then sleeps by night and rises by day, while the seed is shooting up and growing — he knows not how. The ground bears the crop of itself — first the blade, then the ear, and then the full grain in the ear; but, as soon as the crop is ready, immediately he 'puts in the sickle because harvest has come'."

Jesus also said: "To what can we liken the Kingdom of God? By what can we illustrate it? Perhaps by the growth of a mustard-seed. This seed, when sown in the ground, though it is smaller than all other seeds, Yet, when sown, shoots up, and becomes larger than any other herb, and puts out great branches, so that even 'the wild birds can roost in its shelter.'"

With many such parables Jesus used to speak to the people of his Message, as far as they were able to receive it; and to them he never used to speak except in parables; but in private to his own disciples he explained everything. In the evening of the same day, Jesus said to them: "Let us go across." So, leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. A violent squall came on, and the waves kept dashing into the boat, so that the boat was actually 38 filling. Jesus was in the stern asleep upon the cushion; and the disciples roused him and cried: "Teacher! is it nothing to you that 39 we are lost?" Jesus rose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea: "Hush! Be still!" Then the wind dropped, and a great calm 40 followed. "Why are you so timid?" he exclaimed. "Have you no 41 faith yet?" But they were struck with great awe, and said to one another: "Who can this be that even the wind and the sea obey 5 him?"

They came to the other side of the Sea — the country of the 2 Gerasenes; and, as soon as Jesus had got out of the boat, he met a man coming out of the tombs, who was under the power of a 3 foul spirit, and who made his home in the tombs. No one had 4 ever been able to secure him, even with a chain; for, though he had many times been left secured with fetters and chains, he had snapped the chains and broken the fetters to pieces, and no one 5 could master him. Night and day alike, he was continually shrieking in the tombs and among the hills, and cutting himself 6 with stones. Catching sight of Jesus from a distance, he ran and 7 bowed to the ground before him, shrieking out in a loud voice:
 "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God?
 8 For God's sake do not torment me!" For Jesus had said: "Come 9 out from the man, you foul spirit." And he asked him: "What is your name?" "My name," he said, "is Legion, for there are many 10 of us;" and he begged Jesus again and again not to send them away out of that country.

11 There was a large drove of pigs close by, feeding on the hillside;
 12 and the spirits begged Jesus: "Send us into the pigs, that we may 13 take possession of them." Jesus gave them leave. They came out, and entered into the pigs; and the drove — about two thousand in number — rushed down the steep slope into the Sea and were drowned in the Sea.

Mark 5

On this the men who tended them ran away, and carried the 14 news to the town, and to the country round; and the people went to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found 15 the possessed man sitting there, clothed and in his right mind —
 the very man who had had the 'Legion' in him — and they were awe-struck. Then those who had seen it related to them all that 16 had happened to the possessed man, as well as about the pigs;
 upon which they began to beg Jesus to leave their neighborhood. 17

As Jesus was getting into the boat, the possessed man begged 18 him to let him stay with him. But Jesus refused. "Go back to your 19 home, to your own people," he said, "and tell them of all that the Lord has done for you, and how he took pity on you." So the man 20 went, and began to proclaim in the district of the Ten Towns all that Jesus had done for him; and every one was amazed.

By the time Jesus had re-crossed in the boat to the opposite 21 shore, a great number of people had gathered to meet him, and were standing by the Sea. One of the Presidents of the Synagogue, 22 whose name was Jaeirus, came and, as soon as he saw Jesus, threw himself at his feet with repeated entreaties. "My little daughter," 23 he said, "is at the point of death; I beg you to come and place your hands on her, that her life may be spared." So Jesus went with 24 him. A great number of People followed Jesus, and kept pressing round him.

Meanwhile a woman who for twelve years had suffered from 25 hemorrhage, and undergone much at the hands of many doctors, (spending all she had without obtaining any relief, but, on the 26 contrary, growing worse), heard about Jesus, came behind in the 27 crowd, and touched his cloak. "If I can only touch his clothes," she 28 said, "I shall get well!" At once the mischief was stopped, and she 29 felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Jesus at once 30 became aware of the power that had gone out from him, and, turning round in the crowd, he said: "Who touched my clothes?" "You 31

Mark 6

see the people pressing round you," exclaimed his disciples, "and yet you say 'Who touched me?'" But Jesus looked about to see who had done it. Then the woman, in fear and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and threw herself down before him, and told him the whole truth. "Daughter," he said, "your faith has delivered you. Go, and peace be with you; be free from your complaint."

Before he had finished speaking, some people from the house of the President of the Synagogue came and said: "Your daughter is dead! Why should you trouble the Teacher further?" But Jesus, overhearing what they were saying, said to the President of the Synagogue: "Do not be afraid; only have faith." And he allowed no one to accompany him, except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. Presently they reached the President's house, where Jesus saw a scene of confusion — people weeping and wailing incessantly. "Why this confusion and weeping?" he said on entering. "The little child is not dead; she is asleep." They began to laugh at him; but he sent them all out, and then, with the child's father and mother and his companions, went into the room where she was lying. Taking her hand, Jesus said to her: "Taleitha, koum!" — which means 'little girl, I am speaking to you — Rise!' The little girl stood up at once, and began to walk about; for she was twelve years old. And, as soon as they saw it, they were overwhelmed with amazement; but Jesus repeatedly cautioned them not to let any one know of it, and told them to give her something to eat.

On leaving that place, Jesus, followed by his disciples, went to his own part of the country. When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the Synagogue; and the people, as they listened, were deeply impressed. "Where did he get this?" they said, "and what is this wisdom that has been given him? and these miracles which he is doing? Is not he the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? And are not his sisters, too, living here among us?" This proved a hindrance to their believing in him; on which Jesus said: "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own re- 4 lations, and in his own home." And he could not work any miracle 5 there, beyond placing his hands upon a few infirm persons, and curing them; and he wondered at the want of faith shown by the 6 people. Jesus went round the villages, one after another, teaching.

 He called the Twelve to him, and began to send them out as his 7
 Messengers, two and two, and gave them authority over foul spirits. He instructed them to take nothing but a staff for the journey- 8
 -not even bread, or a bag, or pence in their purse; but they were to 9 wear sandals, and not to put on a second coat. "Whenever you go 10 to stay at a house," he said, "remain there till you leave that place;
 And if a place does not welcome you, or listen to you, as you go 11 out of it shake off the dust that is on the soles of your feet, as a protest against them." So they set out, and proclaimed the need of 12 repentance. They drove out many demons, and anointed with oil 13 many who were infirm, and cured them.

Now King Herod heard of Jesus; for his name had become well 14 known. People were saying — "John the Baptizer must have risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are active in him." Others again said — "He is Elijah," and others — "He is 15 a Prophet, like one of the great Prophets." But when Herod heard 16 of him, he said — "The man whom I beheaded — John — he must be risen!"

For Herod himself had sent and arrested John, and put him in 17 prison, in chains, to please Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because Herod had married her. For John had said to Herod — 18
 "You have no right to be living with your brother's wife." So Hero- 19
 dias was incensed against John, and wanted to put him to death, but was unable to do so, because Herod stood in fear of John, 20 knowing him to be an upright and holy man, and protected him.

Mark 6

The Work in Galilee

He had listened to John, but still remained much perplexed, and yet he found pleasure in listening to him.

21 A suitable opportunity, however, occurred when Herod, on his birthday, gave a dinner to his high officials, and his generals, and 22 the foremost men in Galilee. When his daughter — that is, the daughter of Herodias — came in and danced, she delighted Herod and those who were dining with him. “Ask me for whatever you
 23 like,” the King said to the girl, “and I will give it to you”; and he swore to her that he would give her whatever she asked him —
 24 up to half his kingdom. The girl went out, and said to her mother “What must I ask for?” “The head of John the Baptizer,” answered 25 her mother. So she went in as quickly as possible to the King, and made her request. “I want you,” she said, “to give me at once, 26 on a dish, the head of John the Baptist.” The King was much distressed; yet, on account of his oath and of the guests at his table, 27 he did not like to refuse her. He immediately dispatched one of his bodyguard, with orders to bring John’s head. The man went and 28 beheaded John in the prison, and, bringing his head on a dish, gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.

29 When John’s disciples heard of it, they came and took his body away, and laid it in a tomb.

30 When the Apostles came back to Jesus, they told him all that they had done and all that they had taught. “Come by yourselves
 31 privately to some lonely spot,” he said, “and rest for a while” — for there were so many people coming and going that they had not
 32 time even to eat. So they set off privately in their boat for a lonely spot. Many people saw them going, and recognized them, and 33 from all the towns they flocked together to the place on foot, and got there before them. On getting out of the boat, Jesus saw a great
 34 crowd, and his heart was moved at the sight of them, because they were ‘like sheep without a shepherd’; and he began to teach them 35 many things. When it grew late, his disciples came up to him, and said: "This is a lonely spot, and it is already late. Send the people 36 away, so that they may go to the farms and villages around and buy themselves something to eat." But Jesus answered: "It is for 37 you to give them something to eat." "Are we to go and buy twenty pounds' worth of bread," they asked, "to give them to eat?" "How 38 many loaves have you?" he asked; "Go, and see." When they had found out, they told him: "Five, and two fishes." Jesus directed 39 them to make all the people take their seats on the green grass, in parties; and they sat down in groups — in hundreds, and in 40 fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fishes, Jesus looked up 41 to Heaven, and said the blessing; he broke the loaves into pieces, and gave them to his disciples for them to serve out to the people, and he divided the two fishes also among them all. Every one had 42 sufficient to eat; and they picked up enough broken pieces to fill 43 twelve baskets, as well as some of the fish. The people who ate the 44 bread were five thousand in number.

Immediately afterwards Jesus made his disciples get into the 45
 boat, and cross over in advance, in the direction of Bethsaida, while he himself was dismissing the crowd. After he had taken 46 leave of the people, he went away up the hill to pray. When 47 evening fell, the boat was out in the middle of the Sea, and Jesus on the shore alone. Seeing them laboring at the oars — for the 48 wind was against them — about three hours after midnight Jesus came towards them, walking on the water, intending to join them. But, when they saw him walking on the water, they 49 thought it was a ghost, and cried out; for all of them saw him, 50
 and were terrified. But Jesus at once spoke to them.
 "Courage!" he said, "it is I; do not be afraid!" Then he got into the 51 boat with them, and the wind dropped. The disciples were utterly amazed, for they had not understood about the loaves, 52 their minds being slow to learn. When they had crossed over, 53 they landed at Gennesaret, and moored the boat. But they had no 54

55 sooner left her than the people, recognizing Jesus, hurried over the whole country-side, and began to carry about upon mats 56 those who were ill, wherever they heard he was. So wherever he went — to villages, or towns, or farms — they would lay their sick in the market-places, begging him to let them touch only the 7 tassel of his cloak; and all who touched were made well. One day the Pharisees and some of the Teachers of the Law who had 2 come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus. They had noticed that some of his disciples ate their food with their hands
 3 'defiled,' by which they meant unwashed. (For the Pharisees, and indeed all strict Jews, will not eat without first scrupulously washing their hands, holding in this to the traditions of their 4 ancestors. When they come from market, they will not eat without first sprinkling themselves; and there are many other customs which they have inherited and hold to, such as the 5 ceremonial washing of cups, and jugs, and copper pans). So the Pharisees and the Teachers of the Law asked Jesus this question
 — "How is it that your disciples do not follow the traditions of 6 our ancestors, but eat their food with defiled hands?" His answer was: "It was well said by Isaiah when he prophesied about you hypocrites in the words — 'This is a people that honor me with 7 their lips, while their hearts are far removed from me; but vainly
 8 do they worship me, For they teach but human precepts.' You neglect God's commandments and hold to human traditions.
 9 Wisely do you set aside God's commandments," he exclaimed, 10 "to keep your own traditions! For while Moses said 'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'Let anyone who abuses their father 11 or mother suffer death,' you say 'If a person says to their father or mother "Whatever of mine might have been of service to you 12 is Korban"' (which means 'Given to God') — why, then you do not allow them to do anything further for their father or mother!

Mark 7

In this way you nullify the words of God by your traditions, 13 which you hand down; and you do many similar things."

Then Jesus called the people to him again, and said: "Listen to 14 me, all of you, and mark my words. There is nothing external to a 15 person, which by going into them can 'defile' them; but the things that come out from a person are the things that defile them."

When Jesus went indoors, away from the crowd, his disciples 17 began questioning him about this saying. "What, do even you un- 18 derstand so little?" exclaimed Jesus. "Do not you see that there is nothing external to a person, which by going into a person, can
'defile' them, because it does not pass into his heart, but into his 19 stomach, and is afterwards got rid of? — in saying this Jesus pronounced all food 'clean.' "It is what comes out from a person," he 20 added, "that defiles them, for it is from within, out of the hearts 21 of people, that there come evil thoughts — unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, indelicacy, envy, slan- 22 der, haughtiness, folly; all these wicked things come from within, 23
and do defile a person."

On leaving that place, Jesus went to the district of Tyre and 24
Sidon. He went into a house, and did not wish anyone to know it, but could not escape notice. For a woman, whose little daughter 25 had a foul spirit in her, heard of him immediately, and came and threw herself at his feet — the woman was a foreigner, a native of 26 Syrian Phoenicia — and she begged him to drive the demon out of her daughter. "Let the children be satisfied first," answered Jesus. 27
"For it is not fair to take the children's food, and throw it to dogs."
"Yes, Master," she replied; "even the dogs under the table do feed 28 on the children's crumbs." "For saying that," he answered, "you 29 may go. The demon has gone out of your daughter." The woman 30 went home, and found the child lying on her bed, and the demon gone.

Mark 8

The Work in Galilee

31 On returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went, by way of Sidon, to the Sea of Galilee, across the district of the Ten Towns.
 32 Some people brought to him a man who was deaf and almost 33 dumb, and they begged Jesus to place his hand on him. Jesus took him aside from the crowd quietly, put his fingers into the 34 man's ears, and touched his tongue with saliva. Then, looking up to Heaven, he sighed, and said to the man: "Ephphatha!" which 35 means 'Be opened.' The man's ears were opened, the string of his 36 tongue was freed, and he began to talk plainly. Jesus insisted upon their not telling any one; but the more he insisted, the more per-37 severingly they made it known, and a profound impression was made upon the people. "He has done everything well!" they ex-
 8 claimed. "He makes even the deaf hear and the dumb speak!"
 About that time, when there was again a great crowd of people who had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him, and said:
 2 "My heart is moved at the sight of all these people, for they have already been with me three days and they have nothing to eat;
 3 and if I send them away to their homes hungry, they will break down on the way; and some of them have come a long distance."
 4 "Where will it be possible," his disciples answered, "to get suf-
 5 ficient bread for these people in this lonely place?" "How many 6 loaves have you?" he asked. "Seven," they answered. Jesus told the crowd to sit down upon the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, and, after saying the thanksgiving, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve out; and they served them out to the 7 crowd. They had also a few small fish; and, after he had said the 8 blessing, he told the disciples to serve out these as well. The people had sufficient to eat, and they picked up seven baskets full of 9 the broken pieces that were left. There were about four thousand 10 people. Then Jesus dismissed them. Immediately afterwards, getting into the boat with his disciples, Jesus went to the district of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8

Here the Pharisees came out, and began to argue with Jesus, asking him for some sign from the heavens, to test him. Sighing deeply, Jesus said: "Why does this generation ask for a sign? I tell you, no sign shall be given it." So he left them to themselves, and, getting into the boat again, went away to the opposite shore.

Now the disciples had forgotten to take any bread with them, one loaf being all that they had in the boat. So Jesus gave them this warning. "Take care," he said, "beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod." They began talking to one another about their being short of bread; and, noticing this, Jesus said to them: "Why are you talking about your being short of bread? Do not you yet see or understand? Are your minds still so slow or comprehension? "Though you have eyes, do you not see? and though you have ears, do you not hear?" Do not you remember, when I broke up the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets of broken pieces you picked up?" "Twelve," they said. "And when the seven for the four thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces did you pick up?" "Seven," they said. "Do not you understand now?" he repeated.

They came to Bethsaida. There some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and begged him to touch him. Taking the blind man's hand, Jesus led him to the outskirts of the village, and, when he had put saliva on the man's eyes, he placed his hands on him, and asked him: "Do you see anything?" The man looked up, and said: "I see the people, for, as they walk about, they look to me like trees." Then Jesus again placed his hands on the man's eyes; and the man saw clearly, his sight was restored, and he saw everything with perfect distinctness. Jesus sent him to his home, and said: "Do not go even into the village." Afterwards Jesus and his disciples went into the villages round Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples this question — "Who do people say that I am?" "John the Baptist," they answered, "but

- 29 others say Elijah, while others say one of the Prophets." "But you," he asked, "who do you say that I am?" To this Peter replied:
 30 "You are the Christ." On which Jesus charged them not to say 31 this about him to anyone. Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo much suffering, and that he must be rejected by the Councillors, and the Chief Priests, and the Teachers of the Law, and be put to death, and rise again after 32 three days. This statement he made openly. But Peter took Jesus 33 aside, and began to rebuke him. Jesus, however, turning round and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter. "Out of my sight, Satan!" he exclaimed. "For you look at things, not as God does,
 but as people do."
- 34 Calling the people and his disciples to him, Jesus said: "If anyone wishes to walk in my steps, let them renounce self, take up 35 their cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save their life will lose it, and whoever, for my sake and for the sake of the Good 36 News, will lose their life shall save it. What good is it to a person to 37 gain the whole world and forfeit their life? For what could a per-38 son give that is of equal value with their life? Whoever is ashamed of me and of my teaching, in this unfaithful and wicked generation, of them will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his Father's Glory with the holy angels."
- 9 "I tell you," he added, "that some of those who are standing here will not know death till they have seen the Kingdom of God come in power."
- 2 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain alone by themselves. There his ap-3 pearance was transformed before their eyes, and his clothes became of a more dazzling white than any bleacher in the world
 4 could make them. And Elijah appeared to them, in company with 5 Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. "Rabbi," said Peter, interposing, "it is good to be here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." For he did not know what 6 to say, because they were much afraid. Then a cloud came down 7 and enveloped them; and from the cloud there came a voice —

Mark 9

 "This is my Son, the Beloved; him you must hear." And suddenly, 8 on looking round, they saw that there was now no one with them
 but Jesus alone.

As they were going down the mountain-side, Jesus cautioned 9 them not to relate what they had seen to any one, till after the Son of Man should have risen again from the dead. They seized 10 upon these words and discussed with one another what this 'rising from the dead' meant. "How is it," they asked Jesus, "that our 11
 Teachers of the Law say that Elijah has to come first?" "Elijah does 12
 indeed come first," answered Jesus, "and re-establish everything; and does not Scripture speak, with regard to the Son of Man, of his undergoing much suffering and being utterly despised? But I 13 tell you that Elijah has come, and people have treated him just as they pleased, as Scripture says of him."

When they came to the other disciples, they saw a great crowd 14 round them, and some Teachers of the Law arguing with them.
 But, as soon as they saw Jesus, all the people, in great astonish- 15
 ment, ran up and greeted him. "What are you arguing about with 16 them?" Jesus asked. "Teacher," answered a man in the crowd, "I 17 brought my son to see you, as he has a dumb spirit in him; and, 18
 wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down; he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth, and he is pining away. I asked your disciples to drive the spirit out, but they failed." "O faithless genera- 19
 tion!" exclaimed Jesus. "How long must I be with you? how long must I have patience with you? Bring the boy to me." They brought 20 him to Jesus; but no sooner did the boy see him than the spirit threw him into convulsions; and he fell on the ground, and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. "How long has he been like this?" Je- 21 sus asked the boy's father. "From his childhood," he answered; 22

Mark 9

“and it has often thrown him into fire and into water to put an end to his life; but, if you can possibly do anything, take pity on us, and help us!” Why say ‘possibly’?” Jesus replied. “Everything is possible for one who has faith.” The boy’s father immediately cried out: “I have faith; help my want of faith!” But, when Jesus saw that a crowd was quickly collecting, he rebuked the foul spirit: “Deaf and dumb spirit, it is I who command you. Come out from him and never enter him again.” With a loud cry the spirit threw the boy into repeated convulsions, and then came out from him. The boy looked like a corpse, so that most of them said that he was dead. But Jesus took his hand, and lifted him; and he stood up.

When Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately: “Why could not we drive it out?” “A spirit of this kind,” he said, “can be driven out only by prayer.” Leaving that place, Jesus and his disciples went on their way through Galilee; but he did not wish any one to know it, for he was instructing his disciples, and telling them — “The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of his fellow men, and they will put him to death, but, when he has been put to death, he will rise again after three days.” But the disciples did not understand his meaning and were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum. When Jesus had gone into the house, he asked them: “What were you discussing on the way?” But they were silent; for on the way they had been arguing with one another which was the greatest. Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said: “If any one wishes to be first, he must be last of all, and servant of all.” Then Jesus took a little child, and placed it in the middle of them. Folding it in his arms, he said to them: “Any one who, for the sake of my Name, welcomes even a little child like this is welcoming me, and any one who welcomes me is welcoming not me, but him who sent me as his Messenger.”

Mark 10

"Teacher," said John, "we saw a man driving out demons by using your name, and we tried to prevent him, because he did not follow us." "None of you must prevent the man," answered Jesus, "for no one will use my name in working a miracle, and yet find it easy to speak evil of me. He who is not against us is for us. If any one gives you a cup of water because you belong to Christ, I tell you, he shall assuredly not lose his reward.

'And, if any one puts a snare in the way of one of these lowly ones who believe in me, it would be far better for him if he had been thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. If your hand proves a snare to you, cut it off. It would be better for you to enter the Life maimed, than to have both your hands and go into Gehenna, into the inextinguishable fire. If your foot proves a snare to you, cut it off. It would be better for you to enter the Life lame, than to have both your feet and be thrown into Gehenna. If your eye proves a snare to you, tear it out. It would be better for you to enter the Kingdom of God with only one eye, than to have both eyes and be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not put out.'

'For it is by fire that every one will be salted.

'Salt is good, but, if the salt should lose its saltiness, what will you use to season it?

'You must have salt in yourselves, and live at peace with one another."

The Journey to Jerusalem

On leaving that place, Jesus went into the district of Judea on the other side of the Jordan. Crowds gathered about him again; and again, as usual, he began teaching them. Presently some Pharisees came up and, to test him, asked: "Has a husband the right to divorce his wife?" "What direction did Moses give you?" replied

Mark 10

The Journey to Jerusalem

4 Jesus. "Moses," they said, "permitted a man to 'draw up in writ-
 5 ing a notice of separation and divorce his wife.'" "It was owing to 6 the hardness of your hearts," said Jesus, "that Moses gave you this
 7 direction; but, at the beginning of the Creation, God 'made them
 8 male and female.' 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and 9 mother, and the man and his wife shall become one;' so that they
 10 are no longer two, but one. What God himself, then, has yoked 11 together no one must separate."

12 When they were indoors, the disciples asked him again about 13 this, and he said: "Any one who divorces his wife and marries 14 another woman is guilty of adultery against his wife; and, if the 15 woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she is 16 guilty of adultery."

17 Some of the people were bringing little children to Jesus, for him 18 to touch them; but the disciples found fault with those who had 19 brought them. When, however, Jesus saw this, he was indignant.
 20 "Let the little children come to me," he said, "do not hinder them;
 21 for it is to the childlike that the Kingdom of God belongs. I tell you, 22 unless a person receives the Kingdom of God like a child, they will 23 not enter it at all." Then he folded the children in his arms, and,
 24 placing his hands on them, gave them his blessing.

25 As Jesus was resuming his journey, a man came running up to 26 him, and threw himself on his knees before him. "Good Teacher,"
 27 he asked, "what must I do to gain eternal life?" "Why do you call 28 me good?" answered Jesus. "No one is good but God. You know
 29 the commandments — 'Do not kill. Do not commit adultery. Do 30 not steal. Do not say what is false about others. Do not cheat.
 31 Honor your father and your mother.'" "Teacher," he replied, "I 32 have observed all these from my childhood." Jesus looked at the 33 man, and his heart went out to him, and he said: "There is still one 34 thing wanting in you; go and sell all that you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have wealth in Heaven; then come and follow me." But the man's face clouded at these words, and he went away distressed, for he had great possessions. 22

Then Jesus looked round, and said to his disciples: "How hard it will be for people of wealth to enter the Kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again: "My children, how hard a thing it is to enter the Kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to get through a needle's eye, than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God." "Then who can be saved?" they exclaimed in the greatest astonishment. Jesus looked at them, and answered: "With people it is impossible, but not with God; for everything is possible with God." 23 24 25 26 27

"But we," began Peter, "we left everything and have followed you." "I tell you," said Jesus, "there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or land, on my account and on account of the Good News, who will not receive a hundred times as much, even now in the present — houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and land — though not without persecutions, and, in the age that is coming, eternal life. But many who are first now will then be last, and the last will be first." One day, when they were on their way, going up to Jerusalem, Jesus was walking in front of the Apostles, who were filled with misgivings; while those who were following behind were alarmed. Gathering the Twelve round him once more, Jesus began to tell them what was about to happen to him. "Listen!" he said. "We are going up to Jerusalem; and there the Son of Man will be betrayed to the Chief Priests and the Teachers of the Law, and they will condemn him to death, and they will give him up to the Gentiles, who will mock him, spit upon him, and scourge him, and put him to death; and after three days he will rise again." 28 29 30 31 32 33 34

James and John, the two sons of Zebediah, went to Jesus, and said: "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask." "What 35 36

37 do you want me to do for you?"he asked. "Grant us this," they answered, "to sit, one on your right, and the other on your left, when
38 you come in glory." "You do not know what you are asking," Jesus said to them. "Can you drink the cup that I am to drink? or 39 receive the baptism that I am to receive?" "Yes," they answered, "we can." "You shall indeed drink the cup that I am to drink," Jesus
40 said, "and receive the baptism that I am to receive, but as to a seat at my right or at my left — that is not mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

41 On hearing of this, the ten others were at first very indignant
42 about James and John. But Jesus called the ten to him, and said: "Those who are regarded as ruling among the Gentiles lord it over 43 them, as you know, and their great men oppress them. But among you it is not so. No, whoever wants to become great among you
44 must be your servant, and whoever wants to take the first place
45 among you must be the servant of all; for even the Son of Man came, not be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

46 They came to Jericho. When Jesus was going out of the town with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus, the son of 47 Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road-side. Hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to call out: "Jesus, Son of 48 David, take pity on me." Many of the people kept telling him to be quiet; but the man continued to call out all the louder: "Son of 49 David, take pity on me." Then Jesus stopped. "Call him,"he said. So they called the blind man. "Courage!" they exclaimed. "Get 50 up; he is calling you." The man threw off his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. "What do you want me to do for you?"said 51 Jesus, addressing him. "Rabboni," the blind man answered, "I want to recover my sight." "You may go,"Jesus said; "your faith has delivered you."Immediately he recovered his sight, and began to follow Jesus along the road.

The Last Days

When they had almost reached Jerusalem, as far as Bethphage 11 and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent on two of his disciples. "Go to the village facing you,"he said; "and, as soon as 2 you get there, you will find a foal tethered, which no one has ever ridden; untie it, and bring it. And, if any one says to you 'Why are 3 you doing that?', say 'The Master wants it, and will be sure to send it back here at once.'" The two disciples went, and, finding a foal 4 tethered outside a door in the street, they untied it. Some of the 5 by-standers said to them: "What are you doing, untying the foal?"
And the two disciples answered as Jesus had told them; and they 6 allowed them to go. Then they brought the foal to Jesus, and, when 7 they had laid their cloaks on it, he seated himself upon it. Many 8 of the people spread their cloaks on the road, while some strewed boughs which they had cut from the fields; and those who led 9
the way, as well as those who followed, kept shouting: "'God save him! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!' Blessed 10 is the coming Kingdom of our father David! 'God save him from on high!'"

Jesus entered Jerusalem, and went into the Temple Courts; and, 11 after looking round at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

The next day, after they had left Bethany, Jesus became hungry; 12 and, noticing a fig-tree at a distance in leaf, he went to it to see if 13 by any chance he could find something on it; but, on coming up to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.
So, addressing the tree, he exclaimed: "May no one ever again eat 14
of your fruit!"And his disciples heard what he said.

Mark 11

The Last Days

- 15 They came to Jerusalem. Jesus went into the Temple Courts, and began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of the 16 pigeon-dealers, and would not allow any one to carry anything 17 across the Temple Courts. Then he began to teach. "Does not Scripture say," he asked, "'My House shall be called a House of Prayer 18 for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers.'" Now the Chief Priests and the Teachers of the Law heard this and began to look for some way of putting Jesus to death; for they were afraid of him, since all the people were greatly impressed by his 19 teaching. As soon as evening fell, Jesus and his disciples went out of the city.
- 20 As they passed by early in the morning, they noticed that the 21 fig-tree was withered up from the very roots. Then Peter remembered what had occurred. "Look, Rabbi," he exclaimed, 22 "the fig-tree which you doomed is withered up!" "Have faith in 23 God!" replied Jesus. "I tell you that if any one should say to this hill 'Be lifted up and hurled into the sea!', without ever a doubt in his mind, but in the faith that what he says will be done, he 24 would find that it would be. And therefore I say to you 'Have faith that whatever you ask for in prayer is already granted you,
 and you will find that it will be.'
- 25 'And, whenever you stand up to pray, forgive any grievance that you have against any one, that your Father who is in Heaven also 27 may forgive you your offenses.'" They came to Jerusalem again.
 While Jesus was walking about in the Temple Courts, the Chief Priests, the Teachers of the Law, and the Councillors came up to 28 him. "What authority have you to do these things?" they said.
 29 "Who gave you the authority to do them?" "I will put one question to you," said Jesus. "Answer me that, and then I will tell you 30 what authority I have to act as I do. It is about John's baptism. Was it of divine or human origin? Answer me that." They began arguing together; "If we say 'divine,' he will say 'Why then did not you believe him?' Yet can we say 'human'?" — They were afraid of the people, for everyone regarded John as undoubtedly a Prophet. So their answer to Jesus was — "We do not know." "Then I," replied Jesus, "refuse to tell you what authority I have to do these things."

Jesus began to speak to them in parables: "A man once planted a vineyard, put a fence round it, dug a wine-press, built a tower, and then let it out to tenants and went abroad. At the proper time he sent a servant to the tenants, to receive from them a share of the produce of the vintage; but they seized him, and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. A second time the owner sent a servant to them; this man, too, the tenants struck on the head, and insulted. He sent another, but him they killed; and so with many others- some they beat and some they killed. He had still one son, who was very dear to him; and him he sent to them last of all. 'They will respect my son,' he said. But those tenants said to one another 'Here is the heir! Come, let us kill him, and his inheritance will be ours.' So they seized him, and killed him, and threw his body outside the vineyard. What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and put the tenants to death, and he will let the vineyard to others."

'Have you never read this passage of Scripture? — 'The very stone which the builders despised has now itself become the corner-stone; this corner-stone has come from the Lord, and is marvelous in our eyes.'"

After this his enemies were eager to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowd; for they saw that it was at them that he had aimed the parable. So they let him alone, and went away. Afterwards they sent to Jesus some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to set a trap for him in the course of conversation. These men came to him and said: "Teacher, we know that you

Mark 12

The Last Days

- are an honest man, and are not afraid of any one, for you pay no regard to a person's position, but teach the Way of God honestly;
- 15 are we right in paying taxes to the Emperor, or not? Should we pay, or should we not pay?" Knowing their hypocrisy, Jesus said to them: "Why are you testing me? Bring me a florin to look at."
- 16 And, when they had brought it, he asked: "Whose head and title are these?" "The Emperor's," they said; and Jesus replied: "Pay to the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor, and to God what belongs to God." And they wondered at him.
- 18 Next came some Sadducees — the men who maintain that there is no resurrection. Their question was this — "Teacher, in our Scriptures Moses decreed that, should a man's brother die, leaving a widow but no child, the man should take the widow as
- 20 his wife, and raise up a family for his brother. There were once seven brothers; of whom the eldest took a wife, but died and left no family; and the second took her, and died without family; and so did the third. All the seven died and left no family. The woman herself died last of all. At the resurrection whose wife
- 24 will she be, all seven brothers having had her as their wife?" "Is not the reason of your mistake," answered Jesus, "your ignorance of the Scriptures and of the power of God? When people rise from the dead, there is no marrying or being married; but they are as angels in Heaven.
- 26 "As to the dead, and the fact that they rise, have you never read in the Book of Moses, in the passage about the Bush, how God spoke to him thus — 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of
- 27 Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not God of dead people, but of living. You are greatly mistaken."
- 28 Then came up one of the Teachers of the Law who had heard their discussions. Knowing that Jesus had answered them wisely, he asked him this question: "What is the first of all the command-
- 29 ments?" "The first," answered Jesus, "is — 'Hear, O Israel; the Lord

The Last Days

Mark 12

our God is the one Lord; and you must love the Lord your God 30 with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this — 'You must love 31 your neighbor as you love yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." "Wisely answered, Teacher!" exclaimed the 32 Teacher of the Law. "It is true, as you say, that 'there is one God,' and that 'there is no other besides him'; and to 'love him with all 33 one's heart, and with all one's understanding, and with all one's strength,' and to 'love one's neighbor as one loves oneself' is far beyond all 'burnt-offerings and sacrifices.'" Seeing that he had 34 answered with discernment, Jesus said to him: "You are not far from the Kingdom of God."

After that no one ventured to question him further.

While Jesus was teaching in the Temple Courts, he asked: "How 35 is it that the Teachers of the Law say that the Christ is to be David's son? David said himself, speaking under the inspiration of the 36 Holy Spirit — 'The Lord said to my lord: "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies beneath your feet.'" David himself calls 37 him 'lord,' how comes it, then, that he is to be his son?"

The mass of the people listened to Jesus with delight. In the course 38 of his teaching, Jesus said: "See that you are on your guard against the Teachers of the Law, who delight to walk about in long robes, and to be greeted in the streets with respect, and to have the best 39 seats in the Synagogues, and places of honor at dinner. They are 40 the men that rob widows of their homes, and make a pretense of saying long prayers. Their sentence will be all the heavier."

Then Jesus sat down opposite the chests for the Temple offer- 41 ings, and watched how the people put money into them. Many rich people were putting in large sums; but one poor widow came 42 and put in two small coins, worth very little. On this, calling his 43 disciples to him, Jesus said: "I tell you that this poor widow has put in more than all the others who were putting money into the

- 44 chests; for every one else put in something from what he had to spare, while she, in her need, put in all she had — everything
13 that she had to live on.” As Jesus was walking out of the Temple Courts, one of his disciples said to him: “Teacher, look what fine
2 stones and buildings these are!” “Do you see these great buildings?” asked Jesus. “Not a single stone will be left here upon another, which shall not be thrown down.”
3 When Jesus had sat down on the Mount of Olives, facing the Temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew questioned him privately:
4 “Tell us when this will be, and what will be the sign when all this is drawing to its close.”
5 Then Jesus began: “See that no one leads you astray. Many will take my name, and come saying ‘I am He’, and will lead many astray.
7 “And, when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be
8 alarmed; such things must occur; but the end is not yet. For ‘nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom’; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This will be but the beginning of the birth-pangs.
9 “See to yourselves! They will betray you to courts of law; and you will be taken to Synagogues and beaten; and you will be brought up before governors and kings for my sake, that you
10 may bear witness before them. But the Good News must first be 11 proclaimed to every nation. Whenever they betray you and hand you over for trial, do not be anxious beforehand as to what you shall say, but say whatever is given you at the moment; for it will
12 not be you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. Brother will betray brother to death, and the father his child; and children will turn 13 against their parents, and cause them to be put to death; and you will be hated by every one on account of my Name. Yet the person that endures to the end shall be saved.

Mark 13

“As soon, however, as you see ‘the Foul Desecration’ standing 14 where he ought not” (the reader must consider what this means) “then those of you who are in Judea must take refuge in the mountains; and a person on the house-top must not go down, or go in 15 to get anything out of their house: nor must one who is on their 16 farm turn back to get their cloak. And alas for the women that are 17 with child, and for those that are nursing infants in those days!
 Pray, too, that this may not occur in winter. For those days will be 18 a time of distress, the like of which has not occurred from the beginning of God’s creation until now — and never will again. And, 20 had not the Lord put a limit to those days, not a single soul would escape; but, for the sake of God’s own chosen People, he did limit them.

“And at that time if any one should say to you ‘Look, here is the 21
 Christ!’ ‘Look, there he is!’, do not believe it; for false Christs and 22 false Prophets will arise, and display signs and marvels, to lead astray, were it possible, even God’s People. But see that you are on 23 your guard! I have told you all this beforehand.

“In those days, after that time of distress, ‘the sun will be dark- 24
 ened, the moon will not give her light, the stars will be falling 25 from the heavens,’ and ‘the forces that are in the heavens will be convulsed.’ Then will be seen the ‘Son of Man coming in clouds’ 26 with great power and glory; and then he will send the angels, and 27 gather his People from the four winds, from one end of the world to the other.

“Learn the lesson taught by the fig-tree. As soon as its branches 28 are full of sap, and it is bursting into leaf, you know that summer is near. And so may you, as soon as you see these things happening, 29 know that he is at your doors. I tell you that even the present gen- 30 eration will not pass away, until all these things have taken place.
 The heavens and the earth will pass away, but my words will not 31 pass away.

Mark 14

The Last Days

- 32 "But about 'That Day,' or 'The Hour,' no one knows — not even the angels in Heaven, nor yet the Son — but only the Father.
- 33 "See that you are on the watch; for you do not know when the 34 time will be. It is like a man going on a journey, who leaves his home, puts his servants in charge — each having their special duty 35 — and orders the porter to watch. Therefore watch, for you cannot be sure when the Master of the house is coming — whether in 36 the evening, at midnight, at daybreak, or in the morning — lest 37 he should come suddenly and find you asleep. And what I say to 14 you I say to all — Watch!" It was now two days before the Festival of the Passover and the Unleavened bread. The Chief Priests and the Teachers of the Law were looking for an opportunity to arrest 2 Jesus by stealth, and to put him to death; for they said: "Not during the Festival, for fear of a riot."
- 3 When Jesus was still at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, while he was at table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of choice spikenard perfume of great value. She broke the jar, 4 and poured the perfume on his head. Some of those who were present said to one another indignantly: "Why has the perfume 5 been wasted like this? This perfume could have been sold for 6 more than thirty pounds, and the money given to the poor." "Let her alone," said Jesus, as they began to find fault with her, "why are you troubling her? This is a beautiful deed that she has done 7 for me. You always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish you can do good to them; but you will not always have me.
8 She has done what she could; she has perfumed my body
9 beforehand for my burial. And I tell you, wherever, in the whole world, the Good News is proclaimed, what this woman has done will be told in memory of her."
- 10 After this, Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the Chief 11 Priests, to betray Jesus to them. They were glad to hear what he said, and promised to pay him. So he began looking for a good opportunity to betray Jesus. On the first day of the Festival of the Unleavened bread, when it was customary to kill the Passover lambs, his disciples said to Jesus: "Where do you wish us to go and make preparations for your eating the Passover?" Jesus sent forward two of his disciples and said to them: "Go into the city, and there a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you; follow him; and, wherever he goes in, say to the owner of the house 'The Teacher says — Where is my room where I am to eat the Passover with my disciples?' He will himself show you a large upstairs room, set out ready; and there make preparations for us." So the disciples set out and went into the city, and found everything just as Jesus had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

In the evening he went there with the Twelve, and when they had taken their places and were eating, Jesus said: "I tell you that one of you is going to betray me — one who is eating with me." They were grieved at this, and began to say to him, one after another: "Can it be I?" "It is one of you Twelve," said Jesus, "the one who is dipping his bread beside me into the dish. True, the Son of Man must go, as Scripture says of him, yet alas for that man by whom the Son of Man is being betrayed! For that man 'it would be better never to have been born!'"

While they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and, after saying the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, and, after saying the thanksgiving, gave it to them, and they all drank from it. "This is my Covenant-blood," he said, "which is poured out on behalf of many. I tell you that I shall never again drink of the juice of the grape, until that day when I shall drink it new in the Kingdom of God."

They then sang a hymn, and went out up the Mount of Olives, presently Jesus said to them: "All of you will fall away; for Scripture says — 'I will strike down the Shepherd, and the sheep will be

The Last Days

- 28 scattered.' Yet, after I have risen, I shall go before you into Galilee."
 29 "Even if every one else falls away," said Peter, "yet I shall not." "I tell you," answered Jesus, "that you yourself today — yes, this very night — before the cock crows twice, will disown me three times."
 31 But Peter vehemently protested: "Even if I must die with you, I 32 shall never disown you!" And they all said the same. Presently they came to a garden known as Gethsemane, and Jesus said to 33 his disciples "Sit down here while I pray." He took with him Peter, James, and John; and began to show signs of great dismay and 34 deep distress of mind. "I am sad at heart," he said, "sad even to 35 death; wait here, and watch." Going on a little further, he threw himself on the ground, and began to pray that, if it were possible, 36 he might be spared that hour. "Abba, Father," he said, "all things are possible to you; take away this cup from me; yet, not what I will, but what you will."
 37 Then he came and found the three Apostles asleep. "Simon," he said to Peter, "are you asleep? Could not you watch for one hour?
 38 Watch and pray," he said to them all, "that you may not fall into temptation. True, the spirit is eager, but human nature is weak."
 39 Again he went away, and prayed in the same words; and coming back again he found them asleep, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to say to him.
 41 A third time he came, and said to them: "Sleep on now, and rest yourselves. Enough! My time has come. Hark! the Son of Man is 42 being betrayed into the hands of wicked people. Up, and let us be going. Look! my betrayer is close at hand."
 43 And just then, while he was still speaking, Judas, who was one of the Twelve, came up; and with him a crowd of people, with swords and clubs, sent by the Chief Priests, the Teachers of the 44 Law, and the Councillors. Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them. "The man whom I kiss," he had said, "will be the one; 45 arrest him and take him away safely." As soon as Judas came, he

The Last Days

Mark 14

went up to Jesus at once, and said: "Rabbi!" and kissed him. Then 46
the men seized Jesus, and arrested him.

One of those who were standing by drew his sword, and struck 47 at the High Priest's servant, and cut off his ear. But Jesus inter- 48 posed, and said to the men: "Have you come out, as if after a robber, with swords and clubs, to take me? I have been among you 49 day after day in the Temple Courts teaching, and yet you did not arrest me; but this is in fulfillment of the Scriptures." And all the 50 Apostles forsook him, and fled. One young man did indeed fol- 51 low him, wrapped only in a linen sheet. They tried to arrest him;
But he left the sheet in their hands, and fled naked. Then they took 52
Jesus to the High Priest; and all the Chief Priests, the Councillors, and the Teachers of the Law assembled. Peter, who had followed 54 Jesus at a distance into the court- yard of the High Priest, was sitting there among the police- officers, warming himself at the blaze of the fire.

Meanwhile the Chief Priest and the whole of the High Council 55 were trying to get such evidence against Jesus as would warrant his being put to death, but they could not find any; for, though 56 there were many who gave false evidence against him, yet their evidence did not agree. Presently some men stood up, and gave 57
this false evidence against him — "We ourselves heard him say 58
'I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and in three days build another made without hands.'" Yet not even on that point 59 did their evidence agree.

Then the High Priest stood forward, and questioned Jesus. 60
"Have you no answer to make?" he asked. "What is this evidence which these men are giving against you?" But Jesus remained 61 silent, and made no answer.

A second time the High Priest questioned him. "Are you," he asked, "the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?" "I am," replied 62
Jesus, "and you shall all see the Son of Man sitting on the right

63 hand of the Almighty; and 'coming in the clouds of heaven.'" At this the High Priest tore his vestments. "Why do we want any 64 more witnesses?" he exclaimed. "You heard his blasphemy?
 What is your verdict?" They all condemned him, declaring that he deserved death.

65 Some of those present began to spit at him, and to blindfold his eyes, and strike him, saying, as they did so, "Now play the Prophet!" and even the police-officers received him with blows.

66 While Peter was in the court-yard down below, one of the High 67 Priest's maidservants came up; and, seeing Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him, and exclaimed: "Why, you were 68 with Jesus, the Nazarene!" But Peter denied it. "I do not know or understand what you mean," he replied. Then he went out into 69 the porch; and there the maidservant, on seeing him, began to say 70 again to the by-standers: "This is one of them!" But Peter again denied it.

Soon afterwards the bystanders again said to him: "You certainly 71 are one of them; why you are a Galilean!" But he began to swear with the most solemn imprecations: "I do not know the man you 72 are speaking about." At that moment, for the second time, a cock crowed; and Peter remembered the words that Jesus had said to him — 'Before a cock has crowed twice, you will disown me three 15 times'; and, as he thought of it, he began to weep. As soon as it was daylight, the Chief Priests, after holding a consultation with the Councillors and Teachers of the Law — that is to say, the whole High Council — put Jesus in chains, and took him away, and gave 2 him up to Pilate. "Are you the King of the Jews?" asked Pilate.
 3 "It is true," replied Jesus. Then the Chief Priests brought a num-
 4 ber of charges against him; upon which Pilate questioned Jesus again. "Have you no reply to make?" he asked. "Listen, how many 5 charges they are bringing against you." But Jesus still made no reply whatever; at which Pilate was astonished.

The Last Days

Mark 15

Now, at the Feast, Pilate used to grant the people the release of any one prisoner whom they might ask for. A man called Barabbas was in prison, with the rioters who had committed murder during a riot. So, when the crowd went up and began to ask Pilate to follow his usual custom, he answered: "Do you want me to release the 'King of the Jews' for you?" For he was aware that it was out of jealousy that the Chief Priests had given Jesus up to him.
 But the Chief Priests incited the crowd to get Barabbas released instead. Pilate, however, spoke to them again: "What shall I do then with the man whom you call the 'King of the Jews'?" Again they shouted: "Crucify him!" "Why, what harm has he done?"
 Pilate kept saying to them. But they shouted furiously: "Crucify him!" And Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas to them, and, after scourging Jesus, gave him up to be crucified.

The soldiers then took Jesus away into the court-yard — that is the Government House — and they called the whole garrison together. They dressed him in a purple robe, and, having twisted a crown of thorns, put it on him, and then began to salute him.
 "Long life to you, King of the Jews!" they said. And they kept striking him on the head with a rod, spitting at him, and bowing to the ground before him — going down on their knees; and, when they had left off mocking him, they took off the purple robe, and put his own clothes on him. They led Jesus out to crucify him; and they compelled a passer-by, Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them to carry his cross.

They brought Jesus to the place which was known as Golgotha
 — a name which means 'Place of a Skull.' There they offered him drugged wine; but Jesus refused it. Then they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, casting lots for them, to settle what each should take.

Mark 15

The Last Days

26 It was nine in the morning when they crucified him. The words 27 of the charge against him, written up over his head, ran thus — 27 'THE KING OF THE JEWS.' And with him they crucified two robbers, one on the right, and the other on the left.

29 The passers-by railed at him, shaking their heads, as they said:
 "Ah! you who would destroy the Temple and build one in three 30 days, come down from the cross and save yourself!" In the same way the Chief Priests, with the Teachers of the Law, said to one 32 another in mockery: "He saved others, but he cannot save himself! Let the Christ, the 'King of Israel,' come down from the cross now, that we may see it and believe." Even the men who had been crucified with Jesus reviled him.

33 At midday, a darkness came over the whole country, lasting 34 till three in the afternoon. And, at three, Jesus called out loudly:
 'Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?' "which means 'My God, my God, 35 why have you forsaken me?' Some of those standing round heard 36 this, and said: "Listen! He is calling for Elijah!" And a man ran, and, soaking a sponge in common wine, put it on the end of a rod, and offered it to him to drink, saying as he did so: "Wait and 37 let us see if Elijah is coming to take him down." But Jesus, giv-38 ing a loud cry, expired. The Temple curtain was torn in two from 39 top to bottom. The Roman Officer, who was standing facing Jesus, on seeing the way in which he expired, exclaimed: "This man 40 must indeed have been 'God's Son!'" There were some women also watching from a distance, among them being Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James the Little and of Joseph, and Sa-41 lome — all of whom used to accompany Jesus when he was in Galilee, and attend on him — besides many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

42 The evening had already fallen, when, as it was the Preparation 43 Day — the day before the Sabbath — Joseph from Ramah, a Councillor of good position, who was himself living in expectation of the Kingdom of God, came and ventured to go in to see Pilate, and to ask for the body of Jesus. But Pilate was surprised to hear that he had already died. So he sent for the Officer, and asked if he were already dead; and, on learning from the Officer that it was so, he gave the corpse to Joseph. Joseph, having bought a linen sheet, took Jesus down, and wound the sheet round him, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of the rock; and then rolled a stone up against the entrance of the tomb. Mary of Magdala and Mary, the mother of Joseph, were watching to see where he was laid.

The Risen Life Announced

When the Sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought some spices, so that they might go and anoint the body of Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, after sunrise. They were saying to one another: "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" But, on looking up, they saw that the stone had already been rolled back; it was a very large one. Going into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on their right, in a white robe, and they were dismayed; But he said to them: "Do not be dismayed; you are looking for Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified; he has risen, he is not here! Look! Here is the place where they laid him. But go, and say to his disciples and to Peter 'He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see him, as he told you.'" They went out, and fled from the tomb, for they were trembling and bewildered; and they did not say a word to any one, for they were frightened;

9 After his rising again, early on the first day of the week, Jesus
 10 appeared first of all to Mary of Magdala, from whom he had dri-11 ven out seven demons. She went and told the news to those who 12 had been with him and who were now in sorrow and tears; yet
 13 even they, when they heard that he was alive and had been seen 14 by her, did not believe it. Afterwards, altered in appearance, he 15 made himself known to two of them, as they were walking, on 16 their way into the country. They also went and told the rest, but 17 they did not believe even them. Later on, he made himself known
 18 to the Eleven themselves as they were at a meal, and reproached 19 them with their want of faith and their stubbornness, because they 20 did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen from the dead. Then he said to them: "Go into all the world, and proclaim the Good News to all creation. He who believes and is baptized shall be saved; but he who refuses to believe will be condemned.
 Moreover these signs shall attend those who believe. In my Name they shall drive out demons; they shall speak with 'tongues'; they shall take up serpents in their hands; and, if they drink any poison, it shall not hurt them; they will place their hands on sick people and they shall recover." So the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into Heaven, and sat at the right hand of God. But they set out, and made the proclamation everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the Message by the signs which attended it.

But all that had been enjoined on them they reported briefly to Peter and his companions. Afterwards Jesus himself sent them out, from east to west, the sacred and imperishable proclamation of eternal Salvation.
